Time : 9.00 am – 4.30pm

Details:

The Department of Engineering Sciences and Humanities organized a one-day interdepartmental technical event titled Recursion 5.0 on 11th April 2026. The event was open to CSBS, Computer, IT, ENTC students and followed the theme "Where Every Call Leads to Glory." The event began with an inauguration in the presence of Dr. S. M. Yadav, Head of the Department (Engineering Sciences and Humanities), along with Dr. Mujumdar sir, Dr. Tomar madam and FY faculty members. A total of 93 teams (186 Students) enthusiastically participated in the event, which was structured into three intense and engaging rounds:

Round 1 – Brainstorm Blitz

A fast-paced technical + aptitude quiz round where participants had to solve 30 questions in 30 minutes. The questions tested logical reasoning, general aptitude, and basic coding knowledge.

Round 2 – The Cipher Chamber

Teams were presented with 6 password-protected PDFs. The password to each PDF was hidden as a clue or output within the previous one. Participants had to solve and decode each stage logically to progress through the chain

Round 3 – Code Clash Arena

The top teams advanced to the final coding round on HackerRank. Participants were given a set of programming problems to solve within 1 hour, testing their coding skills, efficiency, and logical thinking.

Winners:

Winner: Pratik Jadhav & Rohan choudhari

Runner-up:

1. Adesh Sing & Yash Patil
2. Arush Yambarwar & Aarish Khot
